In an economy still entrenched in a deep global recession, the world is increasingly looking to Asia as a stabilizing factor and a source of economic growth. But with an economic crisis originating in western economies, the question remains of what path Asian integration into the global economy will take and what we should expect moving forward. Come and hear Mr. Yuen Pau Woo, President and CEO of the Asia Pacific Foundation, speak on The Impact of the Global Economic Crisis on Asian Economic Integration and what this means for Canada.

Yuen Pau Woo is President and CEO of the Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada. Mr. Woo is on the management board of the National Centre of Excellence in Immigration Research at UBC and Simon Fraser University (Metropolis BC), and is an advisor to the Shanghai WTO Affairs Consultation Centre and the Asian Development Bank. He is also on the International Advisory Council of the Asia Society in New York, a member of the Greater Vancouver Advisory Board for the Salvation Army, and a board member of the Mosaic Institute.

Mr. Woo was born in Malaysia and grew up in Singapore. He was educated at Lester B. Pearson College, Wheaton College, the University of Cambridge, and the University of London. Mr. Woo has previously worked as a consultant on international marine affairs and as an economist for the Monetary Authority of Singapore and the Government of Singapore Investment Corporation.

In December 2008, Mr. Woo was appointed by the Premier of British Columbia to the province's Economic Advisory Council.
